Family Background & More Information:

Richard's parents died the same year of his birth and he lived with poor relatives who had no water source or electricity in the house. He was happy to join HCH and the improved conditions there. He seems to be very happy and has made some good friends at the orphanage. He visits relatives often during school holidays. He is more advanced than many others his age at school. He sometimes acts very reserved in the presence of adults, but is humble and friendly. He is very active and loves to play sports with his friends.

Richard wants to be a carpenter when he grows up.
