Family Background & More Information:

Mary Stella's mother died in 2002 and she lived with her father for 4 years after her mother's death. Her father had too many children to take care of them.

Mary Stella has accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Lord and Savior.

Academically, Mary Stella is behind her peers in school. She often helps the staff with care of the younger children. She likes to sew and to read, especially romance novels. She loves different cultures, and will often have long discussions with missionary team members that come to work in the orphanage.

Mary Stella wants to be a teacher in the future.
